

Rene Genis French, 1922–2004

Rene Genis, who was born in 1922, was a 20th century French painter renowned for his landscapes and still lifes and for his palette of very transparent blues and greens. Genis studied at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Bordeaux, then at the Ecole des Arts Decoratifs in Paris. Starting in 1959 he had numerous one-man exhibitions in Paris and New York. In the summer of 2002, he had a one-artist exhibition at Galerie 26 on the Place des Vosges, Paris. His work can be seen in museums in Aix-en-Provence, Bordeaux, Lyon and at the Musee Municipal d'Art Moderne in Paris. Rene Genis died in 2004.